

Universidade do Minho

Professor Carla Martins

Pro-rector for Internationalisation at University of Minho, Portugal

Assistant Professor at the School of Psychology of the University of Minho, Portugal

Representative of the Compostela Group of Universities

TOPIC: Report on the impact of COVID-19 on University Education

Keywords: impact; COVID-19; higher education

Carla Martins graduated in Psychology at the Faculty of Psychology and Education Sciences of the University of Porto in 1994 and in 1996 she completed the Master's in Research Methods in Psychology in 1996 at the University of Reading (United Kingdom). That year Carla Martins entered the University of Minho as Monitor at the Department of Psychology of the Institute of Education and Psychology, becoming Assistant in April 1997. In 2003, Carla Martins completed her PhD in Psychology at the University of Reading (UK).

Carla Martins is Assistant Professor at the School of Psychology of the University of Minho and researcher at the Research Unit in Development and Psychopathology of the Center for Research in Psychology (CIPsi).

Carla Martins was Vice-president of the School of Psychology, president of the Pedagogical Council and director of the Integrated Masters in Psychology between January 2013 and September 2014. In September 2014, she joined the Rectoral team as Pro-Rector for Internationalisation.

Carla Martins has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Compostela Group of Universities since September 2015.