

Universidade do Minho

Professor Dr. Fernando León García

Rector of the CETYS University (Mexico)

TOPIC: COVID -19 and Institutional Responses: A Perspective from Senior Leadership around the World

Keywords: strategies; institutional response; best practices

Dr. Leon-Garcia has been President of CETYS University since 2010, leading the institution to regional and program accreditation in the USA (WASC, ACBSP, ABET), and one of the highest student mobility rates in Mexico. Prior to that, he served as Chancellor of City University of Seattle's International Division, with a presence across the Americas, Europe and Asia. Before joining City University, he served as Chief Academic Officer of Apollo International/University of Phoenix International, and before that as Chief Academic Officer at CETYS.

Dr. León-García is President Elect of the International Association of University Presidents (IAUP). In addition, he currently serves or has served on boards and/or advisory groups related to international higher education, accreditation, governance and institutional development including: WASC; Council of Presidents of AGB; Commission on Internationalization/Global Engagement of ACE; HACU; CASE; Universia-Mexico; CONAHEC; and the Mexican Federation of Private Universities (FIMPES).

Dr. León-García holds a doctoral degree in Educational Administration and Policy Analysis and an M.A. in International Development Education from Stanford University, as well as a B.S. in Industrial Engineering from CETYS University.

He has been a Rotary International Fellow, a Mexican National Research System Fellow, a CONACYT Fellow, and an American Council on Education (ACE) Fellow.